

November

Indigenous Education Month

7 Ways You Can Celebrate

1

Explore the Land Acknowledgement

Write a meaningful and respectful Land Acknowledgement

-See link for supports and resources

<https://tinyurl.com/y2bfs4ko>

4

Read a book/ article/ listen to a podcast by an Indigenous author or journalist

-New and existing Mentor texts can be found in your school and on the Sora app

2

Have students design and read morning announcements related to Indigenous Education

-National Aboriginal Veterans Day (Nov 8)
-Treaty Recognition Week (Nov 4-8)
Indigenous Heroes/Artists
-Louis Riel Day (Nov 16)

5

Explore the Indigenous Education Portal in Minds Online

-Getting to Know Turtle Island Document (K-8).
-Explore NFB campus
-Web Links

3

Go for a Nature Walk and have Sharing Circles at the start and/or end of the day

-How do you feel connected to the land?
-How do you respect and care for Mother Earth?
-Find a space to teach a lesson outside.

<https://tinyurl.com/sharingcircle>

6

Celebrate Treaty Recognition Week (November 4-8)

-To honour the importance of treaties and to help Ontarians learn more about treaty rights and treaty relationships.

<https://tinyurl.com/treatypack1>

<https://tinyurl.com/treatypack2>

7

Greet someone in Mohawk, Anishinaabemowin, or Cree

-Start your morning announcements with a greeting in an Indigenous Language. Play the Indigenous Anthem daily.
Mohawk: She:kon (say/go).
Anishinaabemowin: Boozhoo (boo/zoo).
Cree: Tansii (taan/zii).

In November, we celebrate Indigenous Education Month in Limestone. This month provides an opportunity for all staff and students to learn about the histories, cultures, contributions, and perspectives of Indigenous Peoples in Canada.

Still have questions or need support? We are here to help!

Gillianne Mundell
mundellg@limestone.on.ca